

Environmental Sustainability

To align with environmental sustainability and corporate consciousness, devices in the HP MPS fleet default to duplex printing.

For special requirements, this setting can be modified to single sided printing within Printer Properties of the printer driver.